

Task 2: Composing

In your answer you will be assessed on how well you:

- express understanding of the 'Worlds united' in the context of your studies
 - organise, develop and express ideas using language appropriate to audience, purpose and context.

Task 1

Choose ONE quote from the list below. Use the quote as the basis for a story about 'Worlds united.'

- 'Looking back, I was naïve and idealistic.'
- 'United we win, divided we fall'.
- 'Sharing was the only option'.

Task 2

Read the summary of the computer game, Quest for the Unity Stone.

Write a story about ONE obstacle or event encountered by the four adventurers on their quest to retrieve the unity stone. Use the encounter to show how working together they achieved success.

Chaos reigns in the small village of Arnyon since the evil Zihart stole the unity stone. A once proud and prosperous people are doomed.

Four adventurers set off on a dangerous journey to the Dark Worlds to retrieve the unity stone. On their quest they have to overcome the magical and mystical obstacles that will test their honour, courage and strength.

Task 3

Compose a personal letter to the writer of A Year in Denmark.

In your letter, respond briefly to some aspect of living in a different community. It may concern the writer's experiences in Copenhagen, the shopping or the weather.
