By the end of the unit, you should be able to:

- name some animals
- name the parts of the body
- ask and say what someone wants to do
- express what you want to do
- make arrangements for a meeting: day, time and place
- ask and say where something is
- describe physical appearance
- say what someone is doing
- name your birth year animal and describe it
- read and write a description using some descriptive verbs and adjectives.

Expressing what you want to do this weekend

Dialogue Track 6

준호 Junho: 이번 주말에 뭐 하고 싶어요?
What do you want to do this weekend?
수지 Susie: 동물원에 가고 싶어요. I want to go to the zoo.
준호 Junho: 왜요? Why?
수지 Susie: 동물을 좋아해요. I like animals.
그래서 동물원에 가고 싶어요.
So, I want to go to the zoo.
준호 Junho: 아, 그래요? 나도 동물을 좋아해요.
Ah, do you? I also like animals.
수지 Susie: 그럼, 동물원에 같이 가요.
If that’s so, let’s go to the zoo together.

Explanation

싶어요 sip-eo-yo is one of the useful verb endings to ask what someone wants to do as well as to express what you want to do. However, 싶어요 sip-eo-yo cannot be used by itself.

As a helping verb, it is equivalent to ‘want to/would like to’ in English. It is always attached to another verb, for example, 가고 싶어요 which means ‘(I) want to go’. However, the verb must be changed into a new form to be attached to 싶어요.

There are three rules on how to attach a verb to 싶어요.

Rule 1: If a verb ends with 요, replace 요 with ‘고’, and then add 싶어요 as shown below.

가 요 → 가 고 싶어요
I go I want to go
Here are some more examples.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Action verb</th>
<th>I want to [action verb]</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>자요 (to sleep)</td>
<td>자고 싶어요 (to want to sleep)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>타요 (to ride)</td>
<td>타고 싶어요 (to want to ride)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>만나요 (to meet)</td>
<td>만나고 싶어요 (to want to meet)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Rule 2: In the same manner, if a verb ends with 아요/어요, replace 아요/어요 with ‘고’ and then add 싶어요.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Action verb</th>
<th>I want to [action verb]</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>읽어요 (to read)</td>
<td>읽고 싶어요 (to want to read)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>보아요 (to see/watch)</td>
<td>보고 싶어요 (to want to see/watch)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>마시어요 (to drink)</td>
<td>마시고 싶어요 (to want to drink)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>춤(을) 추어요 (to dance)</td>
<td>춤(을) 추고 싶어요 (to want to dance)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Rule 3: Exceptions

(1) When you have the verb ‘해요’ hae-yo, then just change 해요 to ‘하고 싶어요’ hago sip-eo-yo.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>해요 Verb</th>
<th>I want to do</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>축구(를) 해요</td>
<td>축구(를) 하고 싶어요</td>
</tr>

<td>전화(를) 하고 싶어요</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>To make a phone call</td>
<td>To want to make a phone call</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>샤워(를) 해요</td>
<td>샤워(를) 하고 싶어요</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>To take a shower</td>
<td>To want to take a shower</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

As you can see above, when you have the verb 해요, you can omit the objective particle 을/를 before 해요.

Did you know?
“-고 싶다” is only used when referring to something you want to do yourself. If you are talking about something someone else wants to do, use "-고 싶어하다."
When you have the verb ‘처요’ chyeo-yo, then just change 처요 to ‘치고 싶어요’ chigo sip- eo-yo.

<table>
<thead>

When you want to find out what someone wants to do, ask him or her “뭐 하고 싶어요?”

Q.  뭐 + 하고 + 싶어요?

If you want to go to the zoo, say “동물원에 가고 싶어요.” The action verbs before 싶어요 must be changed according to the activities that you want to do.

In summary, you can express what you want to do as shown below.

More action words with 싶어요

You have learned some action words in the previous units. Using those words and the new expression 싶어요, you can talk about what you want to do.

Listen carefully and repeat Track 8

1) 태권도를 해요.  →  슬  하고 싶어요.
2) 수영을 해요.  →  올  하고 싶어요.
3) 축구를 해요.  →  를  하고 싶어요.

Making arrangements for a meeting: day, time and place

Dialogue  Track 9

수지 Susie: 언제 어디에서 만날까요?
When and where will we meet?
준호 Junho: 토요일 9 시에 타롱가 동물원에서 만나요.
Let’s meet at Taronga Zoo at 9 on Saturday.
수지 Susie: 음… 10 시(는) 어떻게? 괜찮아요?
Well, how about 10? Is that alright?
준호 Junho: 네, 괜찮아요. Sure, it is.

Explanation

A question word, 언제 eonje means ‘when’. It is normally used at the beginning of a sentence.

Another useful question word is 어디 eodi which means ‘where’.

No particle is used after 언제. However, the particle 에서 eseo (or 에 e) is always added to 어디 eodi.

To respond to a ‘어디에 eodi-에서 eodi-seo’ question, just say the name of the place and add 에/에서. Any place where an action happens need ~에서, not ~에: for example, 동물원에서 만나요 (= let’s meet at the zoo), 오페라하우스는 시드니에 있어요 (= Opera House is located in Sydney.)

To ask when and where someone is going to meet you, Koreans usually say 언제 eonje 어디에서 eodi-seo, and then add 만날까요 mannalkkayo.

The sentence ending -ㄹ까요 is used when you want to say, ‘Shall we do something…?’ It is also used to say, ‘I wonder if….’. To respond to the sentence ending -ㄹ까요, for example, 만날까요, just say ‘만나요’ as Junho says in the dialogue above.

만나요 (We) meet/see......

Shall (we) meet/see......?
Sentence pattern

Q. 언제 + 어디서 + 만날까요?

A. Date and/or Day and/or Time 에 + Place 에서 + 만나요.

Korean particles

Particles are important in Korean sentences. Korean particles are also called ‘Korean postpositions’ as they immediately follow nouns and pronouns unlike English particles. They are added to nouns/pronouns, and express the role of the nouns/pronouns in the sentence. Here are some Korean particles you’ve learned so far.

*Note: 오전 o-jeon is equivalent to ‘a.m.’ and 오후 o-hu is ‘p.m.’ respectively. To say the time, use 오전 or오후 first, and then add numbers to them.

- 6 am = 오전 6 시 o-jeon 6 시
- 2 pm = 오후 2 시 o-hu 2 시

*Note: There is one exception to the rule (‘에’ and ‘에서’) you have just learned on the previous page. If the verb, ‘가요’ which means ‘go’ (action word), is followed by a place, the particle 에 should be used: 어디에 가요?
There are different ways of writing and saying the date and time in different languages and cultures. How would you tell the date and time in Korean? What do you think is the Korean convention for it? Koreans say the year first, then the month, the date, the day and the time at the end.

When shall we meet?

Let’s meet at 2pm on Wednesday, 14th December, 2050.

Asking and saying where something is

Dialogue
Junho: What would you like to see?
Susie: First of all, I want to see an elephant and a giraffe. Where is the elephant?
Junho: The elephant is in front of the koalas.
Susie: Ah, the giraffe is next to the koalas as well.

Explanation

You have already learned -고 싶어요 -go sip-eo-yo which means ‘want to’ or ‘would like to’. To use a ‘what...?’ question, start a sentence with 무엇(을) moo-wot (eul). To make the question more specific like what Junho says in the dialogue, add a verb (an action word) and then place a question mark at the end.

To ask where something is located, just say 어디 eodi followed by the place marker 에 e with the verb 있어요 isseoyo: 어디에 있어요? eodi-e isseoyo?

The following position words, such as 앞 ap (front), 뒤 dwi (back), 옆 yeop (side), 위 wi (above) or 아래 a-rae (below), can be used when answering the 어디 eodi questions.

The order of the sentence for the answer is identical to the question, except for the 어디 eodi part.

In answering, the 어디 eodi part is replaced with a noun (animal, person, or a thing), followed by a position word.
Sentence pattern

Q. Noun 룡이 + 어디 에 + 있어요?

A. Noun 룡이 + Noun 앞옆뒤위아래 에 + 있어요.

Do you remember? 있어요 isseoyo indicates the existence of something. When 있어요 isseoyo is used in asking a question, make sure to raise your tone of voice for the ending.

Do you know? The expression 보고 싶어요 bogo sip-eo-yo can be used when you miss someone.
Listen carefully and repeat Track 12

My house 우리 집

Below is a photo of your house. Explain where each animal is to your partner.
Where is it? 어디에 있어요?

With your partner, one person chooses an animal and asks for its location. The other person answers by describing where it is by using the position words. Take turns.

Sing along! Track 13

You can repeat the same position word twice with 에 e, for example 옆에 옆에 yeop-e yeop-e, or combine two position words to describe where something is, for example 앞에 옆에 ap-e yeop-e.

옆에 옆에 yeop-e yeop-e means something is next and next to.
앞에 옆에 ap-e yeop-e means something is in front and next to.

With your partner, work out the meaning of the following sentences using the pictures.

- 고양이는 금붕어 옆에 옆에 있어요.
- 꽃은 개 앞에 옆에 있어요.
- 딸기는 고양이 옆에 뒤에 있어요.
- 사과는 개 옆에 옆에 있어요.
- 금붕어는 딸기 옆에 앞에 있어요.
- 고양이는 사과 옆에 옆에 뒤에 있어요.
- 나는 딸기 앞에 앞에 있어요.
Let’s play a game!

Where are you?
Working in pairs, one partner chooses a classmate and writes down the name of the chosen classmate without letting the other partner know. Set a time limit of 30 seconds. The time starts as soon as the name of the classmate is revealed to your partner. Your partner needs to come up with as many sentences as possible to describe where that person is sitting using different position words such as 앞에, 옆에, 뒤에, and so on. Take turns and see who has produced the most sentences.

Some animals are very special to Koreans because of what they represent.

The pig represents money and fortune.

The dragon means royal authority and guardian god to Koreans.

The turtle is a symbol of a healthy long life.

The magpie stands for good news or a welcome guest. Koreans expect good news when hearing a magpie in the morning.

Action: Research what tigers represent for Koreans.

Describing physical appearance

Dialogue  Track 14
수지 Susie: 저기 봐요. 코끼리가 있어요.
Look over there. There is an elephant.
준호 Junho: 코끼리는 뚱뚱해요. 코끼리는 몸이 커요.
The elephant is fat. Its body is big.
수지 Susie: 저기에 악어도 있어요.
There is a crocodile, too.
준호 Junho: 악어는 무서워요. 악어는 입이 길어요.
The crocodile is scary. Its mouth is long.

Explanation
To describe physical appearances, for example, if something is big, small, beautiful or scary, you need describing words. To be precise, Korean descriptive verbs are needed. As you have learned, Korean sentences usually end with verbs, and those verbs include ‘action verbs’ and ‘descriptive verbs’. The descriptive verbs are equivalent to adjectives in English. Below are some describing words.

Listen carefully and repeat  Track 15
Part 1

<table>

<th>(몸이) 작아요 jagayo (size)</th>
<th>(기) 커요 keoyo (length/height)</th>

</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Note: 커요 keoyo and 작아요 jagayo can be used for both size (몸) and length (기/길이).
Can you work out which words are antonyms? What are they?
Sentence pattern

Person/animal + describing word

Explanation

In order to describe physical appearances, simply add a describing word after a person's name or an animal with the correct topic marker.

Listen carefully and repeat

Listen carefully and repeat the following sentences.

1) 코끼리는 뚱뚱해요.
2) 병아리는 귀여워요.
3) 악어는 무서워요.
4) 펭귄은 작아요.
5) 나비는 멋있어요.
6) 고양이는 예뻐요.
7) 거북이는 느려요.
8) 토끼는 빨라요.
9) 여우는 날씬해요.
10) 사자는 커요.

Action: Take turns to translate each sentence to your partner in English.
Parts of the body

Listen carefully and repeat Track 17
Explanation

You can be more specific in describing physical appearance by adding body parts followed by 이 i or 가 ga before saying the describing word, for example, 악어는 입이 길어요 from the dialogue.

Let’s speak!

Working in pairs, one person chooses an animal and the corresponding topic marker, and says it first. Your partner will continue to build the sentence and say the appropriate parts of the body and subject marker. You then need to select the best describing word to complete the sentence. Take turns.

Action: Choose one item from each column above and mix and match the words to create a new animal/creature.
Let’s write!

Trace over each letter with your finger. Follow the correct order for writing it. Read aloud yourself as you trace over it.

Let’s play a game!

Guess what? Ask the least number of questions!

In groups, have one person think of an animal. The other people in the group take turns to ask a question using describing words. For example, 꼬리가 있어요? 몸이 컸어요?
The person who chose an animal can only respond by saying yes or no in Korean, for example, “네” or “아니요”.

The aim of this game is to guess the animal correctly with the least number of questions.
Saying what someone is doing

Dialogue  Track 18

수지 Susie: 우아! 여기 좀 봐요.
Wow! Look over here.
코끼리가 노래하고 있어요!
The elephant is singing.
준호 Junho: 진짜요?! 말도 안 돼요.
For real?! It doesn’t make sense.

Explanation

You have already learned – 싶어요 sip-eo-yo meaning ‘want to /would like to’.
You can easily say what someone or something is doing by substituting the word 있어요 iseoyo in place of 싶어요 sip-eo-yo.

Here is an example.

‘말도 안 돼요’ mal-do an dae-yo means literally ‘(it) cannot be even a word’. Use this expression for saying ‘It doesn’t make sense’, ‘I can’t believe it’, or ‘No way’.

Let’s speak!

Choose an image below, and ask your partner saying “뭐 하고 있어요?” Your partner answers by using expression -(하다)고 있어요. Take turns.
Koreans use a twelve-animal cycle beginning with the mouse and ending with the pig to represent birth years. Each year is designated as the year of that animal. Everybody born in that year has the same animal symbol. For example, the year 2015 is the Year of the Sheep so all Korean babies born in 2015 are called sheep-year people, 양띠 yang tti. As there are twelve animals in the cycle, those who were born twelve years ago, in 2003, are also 양띠 yang tti.
The chart below shows the twelve animals and their corresponding years.

Do you know which animal year we are in this year? What is it? What is your birth year animal? Can you work out the animal year of your family members? What are they?

Popular Korean folk tales

Tale 1 콩쥐팥쥐 Kongjwi and Patjwi: Once upon a time, there lived a little girl named 콩쥐 kongjwi. After her mother passed away, her father remarried a widow with a daughter named 팥쥐 patjwi. 팥쥐 patjwi and the stepmother treated 콩쥐 kongjwi very badly, making her do all the house chores. One day, the stepmother asked 콩쥐 kongjwi to fill a big water jar up to the brim. Without knowing there was a hole at the bottom of the jar, 콩쥐 kongjwi couldn’t fill the jar with water. When 콩쥐 kongjwi cried with deep sorrow, a giant toad suddenly appeared and blocked the hole for her. One day, a big festival was held in the village. 팥쥐 patjwi and the stepmother attended the festival, but poor 콩쥐 kongjwi had to harvest three bushels of rice. Just then, a large flock of birds flew in and helped by pecking up the rice with great speed. Soon after, mice brought pretty clothes and shoes so that 콩쥐 kongjwi could go to the festival. Running quickly, however, she accidentally lost one of her shoes. The mayor of the village who also came to the festival asked his servant to find the owner of the missing shoe. 팥쥐 patjwi claimed that the shoe was hers, but her foot was too big to fit in. At that time, the servant saw 콩쥐 kongjwi without a shoe and asked her to try it on. Needless to say, the shoe was a perfect fit for her. The mayor was deeply impressed and fell in love with her. Finally, 콩쥐 kongjwi and the mayor got married and they lived happily ever after.
Tale 2 토끼의 간 The rabbit’s liver: A long, long time ago, the Dragon King of the East Sea became very ill. The court physicians, after taking the king’s pulse, said that they needed a rabbit’s liver to save the king. The faithful tortoise volunteered to go over to the land to find a rabbit. Soon after arriving on land, the tortoise found a rabbit. “Come along with me. I’ll show you a most fantastic sight of an underwater palace”, said the tortoise. So the rabbit hopped on his back and went down under the sea. Realising that the Dragon King wanted his liver, the rabbit fooled the tortoise, saying “I took my liver out and left it at home before I came here”. The tortoise believed what the rabbit said, and they went back to the land. Once he stepped on to the land, the rabbit ran away. While the tortoise was blaming himself for his own stupidity, a god with a long white beard appeared and gave him some ginseng roots. The Dragon King became healthy again after having ginseng roots.

Tale 3 소가 된 게으름뱅이 The man who became a cow: Long ago, there was a man who was very lazy. His wife kept nagging him because he never worked. Her continual nagging drove him into running away from home.

On the way, he saw an old man making a cow-shaped mask. “What’s this?” he asked. The old man told him that something good would happen if a person like him, who does not want to work, wears that mask. However, once he put on the mask, he turned into a cow. The old man sold the lazy man who had become a cow to a farmer, telling him “Do not take this cow to a radish field because it will die if it eats radish.”

The man who had become a cow had to work so hard from dawn till dusk. He regretted that he had been so lazy before. However, when he ate the radish, he became a human being again. After that, the man went home and worked hard. There is an old saying in Korea that if someone lies down after having a meal, the person would become a cow.
Tale 4 흥부 놀부 Heung-bu Nol-bu: Once upon a time, there were two brothers, 놀부 nol-bu and 흥부 heung-bu. After their parents passed away, the greedy elder brother 놀부 nol-bu took all the inheritance including his brother’s share. One day, 흥부 heung-bu saw that a big snake was about to kill a little swallow, so he saved the bird. Next spring, the swallow brought 흥부 heung-bu a gourd seed (박씨 bak-si). 흥부 heung-bu planted it and it grew very quickly to produce many gourds. When 흥부 heung-bu and his wife cut them in half, they were astonished to find rice, gold, silk and other expensive goods inside the gourds.

So 흥부 heung-bu soon became much richer than 놀 nol-bu.

The greedy 놀부 nol-bu heard what had happened to his brother. So he broke a swallow’s leg and fixed it on purpose. 놀부 nol-bu also received a gourd seed from the swallow. However, when 놀부 nol-bu cut his gourds in half, goblins (도깨비 do-kkae-bi) came out and destroyed his house.

This is a typical Korean story of good triumphing over evil.

Project

Wouldn’t it be wonderful to have a very special pet? Imagine you travelled to a strange planet and met an alien pet. Perhaps you liked the alien pet so much that you came back with one to keep as your own. Don’t just dream about it. You can actually create your own alien pet in this unit. Follow the instructions to complete your project.

Project part 1: My alien pet

You have always dreamed of having an alien pet. What does your alien pet look like? Does it look something like two animals combined or really different from any animals living on Earth? Use some digital tools, such as Photoshop and Illustrator, to complete the following:

1. Choose a picture of an animal.
2. Use the digital tool of your choice to manipulate different parts of the body to create an interestingly shaped animal.
3. Now name it and write a description of your newly created animal in Korean.
4. Present it to the class for display. The class can vote for their favourite alien pet.
Project part 2: Interview with my alien pet

On your space travel, you have landed on a planet that you have never been to before. While traveling around the planet, you met an alien and his pets. He was kind enough to give you one of his pets. Imagine that you have just come back from this strange planet with your alien pet.

1. Draw your alien pet and describe it in Korean.
2. You have discovered that the alien pet can speak Korean. Prepare a list of questions and conduct an interview with your pet.
3. Create a profile of your newly acquainted alien pet based on your description of its appearance and the interviews.
4. Present the profile of your alien pet to your class.

You are encouraged to use a range of digital tools as much as you can. Do you have your own blog or homepage? If so, you might want to upload your project there and share it with your class. In your blog or presentation tool, you can record the interview using whatever digital tools suit you. Discuss with your teacher which digital tool is best.
